

In Room Dining

We are pleased to offer In-Room Dining and Hospitality Suites Menu. Listed within the menu are individual service times for each meal period.

SAZERAC

Named after what many consider to be the world's first mixed drink, the Sazerac Bar carries with it as much history and lore as its potable namesake. Just gazing at the famous Paul Ninas murals that flank the long African walnut and mahogany bar takes you back to the grandeur of old New Orleans...to a time when Huey P. Long would stroll in and order a Ramos Gin Fizz from Sam Guarino, the head bartender, and spend the next few hours holding court.

An extensive renovation to the bar was completed ahead of the hotel's grand reopening as a Waldorf Astoria Hotel in 2009 in an effort to preserve this iconic piece of New Orleans history.

FOUNTAIN LOUNGE

Since 1938, the Fountain Lounge has brought unique flavor to The Roosevelt Hotel's legacy of exceptional dining. Signature creations delight the palate while the warm ambiance offers the perfect setting for breakfast with family, lunch with friends or perhaps just dinner for two.

Teddy's Café is a casual spot for quick service dining featuring specialty coffees and sweets. Guests enjoy the informal dining menu as well as New Orleans favorites like Café au Lait and Beignets. Sip a cup of our Roosevelt Blend coffee created exclusively for the hotel or a glass of wine from our extensive list. The warm, comfortable décor will invite you to sit down and savor all of the tastes of New Orleans.

Sit back, relax and enjoy! Delight the senses with an afternoon snack, a late lunch or a classic poolside libation, all while soaking up the beautiful Louisiana sunshine. Gaze upon the cityscape of historic New Orleans while taking a relaxing swim in our saltwater pool.

Waldorf Astoria luxury and relaxation at its finest.
